And Now a Word from Dave

HAPPY NEW YEAR!!! Okay, now that I've gotten that out of the way, let me ask you, "are you going to do something to make the new year a happy one?" What would need to happen for you to have a happy 2019? Pay off debts? Lose a lot of weight? Take that long-dreamed-of vacation? Learn to be more sensitive to the needs of people? Think more before speaking? I am sure there's a bunch of...for lack of a better word, "resolutions" we could focus on in this new year. But I'm going to suggest one that comes straight out of the Bible, one that isn't too difficult for us to do on a daily basis (unless you flat out choose NOT to), and that is to try and live more towards what Psalm 46:10a instructs us to do, and that is...."Be still and know that I am God." Can you do that? You need only to take a few minutes to isolate yourself, close your eyes to shut out distractions, and relax. Wait for God to say something to you. It may not be earth-shattering news; it could be totally ordinary, but it's communication taking place between your personal Savior and YOU! What do you say? Could you at least do that as a resolution? And if someone asks you if you made any new year resolutions, you can truthfully say that you plan to get closer to God in 2019. Pretty decent resolution to shoot for, am I right?

January 1st is a holiday. The church office will be closed.

Regular activities occur Wednesday, January 2nd.

The Un-Decorating Party is 6:00 pm Thursday, January 3rd, and we need YOU to help turn the sanctuary back into how it looks for about 11 months out of the year. Please help us. People who are comfortable being on high ladders are needed. Strong people are needed. And personally, if we don't get folks to help us, I could get used to seeing these decorations up a little longer.

Sundays @ 6:00 begin our Discipleship Training. As of now, I don't have a topic at the ready but by then, I will. Guess that's another resolution for me to do.

Deacons will have their monthly meeting, Sun. Jan. 13th @ 9:00 a.m.

I would like to have a Baptist Men's Day the last Sunday in January (the 27th) with our men leading the morning worship service, providing the special music, and bringing the message.

Enjoy the gift of a new year, courtesy of our Lord.

Associational Baptist Men's Meeting

We're having an important meeting Monday, January 7, 7:00pm, at the Columbus Baptist Association Office (208 S Thompson St, Whiteville) to discuss Hurricane Florence Rebuilding efforts and how, we as an Association, can become more involved. Through FEMA and the NC Baptist Men, several programs are available to help homeowners who were flooded out by the storm. This is at no cost to our churches, but does require volunteer labor. We are looking to get interested men and women who wish to volunteer to come to this meeting, so that we may share some great ways to get involved. We are expecting a good turnout from our churches. This is a great opportunity for us, as the hands and feet of Jesus, to help out our community and an even greater chance for us to share the gospel. Please contact Teresa at the office (910) 642-2155, if you will be in attendance.
