

THE STROLE FAMILY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Purpose	The Strole Family Memorial Scholarship has been established for the purpose of assisting and encouraging a worthy and deserving high school graduate in the furthering of their education. In the event Chadbourn Baptist Church does not have a high school graduate, a full-time college / trade school student can be considered for this scholarship.
Inception	Glenda N. Strole established The Strole Family Memorial Scholarship in 1999 as a memorial to her husband, J. Philip Strole, his parents, Glenn and Inez Strole, and his grandparents, David and Estella Strole, all former members of Chadbourn Baptist Church since 1905. Rachel Strole Arnette Matthews and Jean Strole Holland, co-contributors of the original scholarship, have since passed, now their children, fourth generation members of Chadbourn Baptist Church, will continue to maintain and award this scholarship. They are Norman Strole, Phyllis Strole Breeden, Rebecca Strole Edwards, Charles Arnette, Gail Arnette McCain, Glenn Arnette, Helen Arnette Waddell, Glenda Holland Canfield, and Linda Holland Allen.
Scholarship	The amount of the scholarship will be $1,000.00 and awarded annually on Graduate Recognition Sunday.
Requirements	Recipient must: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. be a full-time student2. be a member of Chadbourn Baptist Church3. have earned a 2.0 or higher GPA4. be judged on his/her merit and achievement, leadership and service, character, academic standing and motivation by the Chadbourn Baptist Church Scholarship Committee5. be selected by the Chadbourn Baptist Church Scholarship Committee
Application	Application form for the Strole Family Memorial Scholarship is available on the church's website at www.ChadbournBaptist.com . Scholarship application must include the following: name, current address, contact phone number, email address, name of school and date of graduation, college / trade school applicant currently attends or plans to attend, degree the applicant is pursuing or plans to pursue and why, a copy of the applicant's latest transcript and current grade point average, academic achievements, church, school and community activities, honors and awards received, past and present place(s) of employment, reasons the applicant is deserving of the scholarship, and any other information the applicant would like the Scholarship Committee to know. Included with the above information must be letters of recommendation (1) written by a member of Chadbourn Baptist Church, excluding members of the current Scholarship Committee or applicant's family and (2) from applicant's high school guidance counselor. For returning college students, the second letter of recommendation is waived. Completed application must be delivered to the church office by April 30 for consideration by the Scholarship Committee.
Disbursement	Scholarship will be paid to the college of recipient's choice by Chadbourn Baptist Church. In the event the student withdraws from the college for more than a quarter/semester, excepting illness of student, the college will be requested to return any remaining money.